

FICCI' Forum of Parliamentarians

FICCI's Forum of Parliamentarians was established at the turn of the century to lead dialogues on strategic, economic and socio-cultural aspects of India's interaction with the world through exchanges with elected representatives, industry, policy experts, think tanks, universities, media and counterpart organisations across the globe. This unique initiative for political outreach provides a track II platform for Indian Members of Parliament to meet and interact with counterparts from other countries.

To ensure a bipartisan spirit, MPs across party lines are engaged from both Houses of Parliament and with a healthy mix of political ideologies. As foreign policy and domestic concerns are becoming increasingly intertwined the Forum also ensures adequate diversity in the composition of MPs from states of India.

What we do

About FICCI

Established in 1927, FICCI is the largest and oldest apex business organisation in India. Its history is closely interwoven with India's struggle for independence, its industrialization, and its emergence as one of the most rapidly growing global economies.

A non-government, not-for-profit organisation, FICCI is the voice of India's business and industry. From influencing policy to encouraging debate, engaging with policy makers and civil society, FICCI articulates the views and concerns of industry. It serves its members from the Indian private and public corporate sectors and multinational companies, drawing its strength from diverse regional chambers of commerce and industry across states, reaching out to over 2,50,000 companies.

FICCI provides a platform for networking and consensus building within and across sectors and is the first port of call for Indian industry, policy makers and the international business community.

About Forum of Parliamentarians

The Forum of Parliamentarians is FICCI's unique initiative for political outreach across party affiliations covering both Houses of the Indian Parliament in true bipartisan spirit. The Forum engages at the bilateral and multilateral levels through inbound and outbound delegations and exchanges with elected representatives, industry, policy experts, think tanks, universities, media and counterpart organisations across the globe.
